

MARKING RUBRIC – BUSINESS STRATEGY ESSAY (Total: 20 marks)

Part A – Porter's Five Forces Analysis (5 marks)

- 5: All five forces correctly identified and explained, two forces selected with strong, specific justification tied to Netflix's context
- 3-4: Most forces identified, two selected with reasonable justification but lacking depth or specificity
- 1-2: Some forces mentioned but analysis is superficial or forces are misidentified
- 0: No meaningful application of the framework

Part B – Competitive Strategy Evaluation (5 marks)

- 5: Strategy correctly identified, multiple specific pieces of evidence from Netflix's actual business model, coherent argument
- 3-4: Strategy identified correctly, some evidence provided but argument lacks full coherence or depth
- 1-2: Strategy identified but with weak or generic evidence, or incorrect identification with partial justification
- 0: No meaningful evaluation

Part C – Critical Assessment of Content Investment (5 marks)

- 5: Balanced critical analysis with both supporting and opposing arguments, backed by specific data or examples, clear overall position
- 3-4: Some critical analysis present but one-sided, or good points made without sufficient evidence
- 1-2: Mostly descriptive rather than critical, or very limited engagement with the question
- 0: No meaningful assessment

Part D – Strategic Recommendations (5 marks)

- 5: Two specific, realistic recommendations clearly justified using strategic theory, directly tied to issues identified earlier in the essay
- 3-4: Two recommendations provided but one is vague or the theoretical grounding is weak
- 1-2: Recommendations are generic or not tied to strategic theory
- 0: No meaningful recommendations
